

Public Notice

August 03, 2022

1. This notice is issued pursuant to the Hon'ble Supreme Court Orders dated 27.07.2022, extracted as under:

“9 ... Since the Board which has been appointed by the Union Government is in place and this Court has also appointed, in addition, Mr. Justice Abhay Manohar Sapre, a former judge of this Court in order to ensure transparency and objectivity in all transactions undertaken by the Board, it is necessary to clarify that all relevant updates shall be provided only on the web portal maintained by the present management of Unitech. Any homebuyer, FD holder or employee, with a grievance, is at liberty to reach out to the management on the web portal. The web portal shall, henceforth, be maintained exclusively by the management of Unitech and, in consequence, any requirement of technical inputs or IT related services shall be availed of by the management at its discretion.”

2. While the Unitech management is in the process of developing an efficient system of e-Communication with the stakeholders, and ensuring a timely response from the management, which is likely to take some time, the following is brought to the kind notice of all concerned at this stage:

- (i) All communications with the stakeholders of Unitech Group of Companies, more specifically the Homebuyers and Fixed Deposit (FD) holders, will be done through electronic mode.
- (ii) All Orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court have already been uploaded and will continue to be placed in future also on the company website www.unitechgroup.com under the heading “Supreme Court Orders”.
