Relaxations/ concessions granted to the home-buyers in projects situated in Haryana due to COVID-19

The Government of Haryana has offered a bouquet of relaxations and concessions to the real estate sector in order to oblivate the sufferings of the real estate sector and homebuyers, accentuated by the pandemic COVID-19 and consequent nationwide lockdowns. The Town and Country Planning Department, Haryana has, accordingly, issued a notification bearing No. Misc-1025/2020/13188 dated 28.07.2020, inter alia, providing moratorium from 01.03.2020 to 30.09.2020 on interest charged on account of delay in making time-bound payments.

2. Following the initiative taken by the GoH, the Unitech Group has also decided to extend the said relaxations/ concessions to its allottees in the projects developed/ under development by it in respect of projects situated in the state of Haryana. The said relaxations/concessions entail treatment of the period from 01.03.2020 to 30.09.2020 as zero period for the purposes of calculation of interest/ penal interest on the delays in making payment of fees and charges.
